All in the month of June

75 years ago: on 25th June 1942 that The Daily Telegraph newspaper published the first account of the mass murder of Polish Jews. It reported that Germany had murdered 700,000 already, and that a further 1000 a day were being killed in gas chambers at Auschwitz. It was reported to be 'the greatest massacre in history' yet the story was largely ignored; it only made page 5 of the newspaper, and the other newspapers did not even run it.

70 years ago: on 5th June 1947 that the Marshall Plan was proposed. US Secretary of State George C Marshall proposed a self-help programme for Europe that would enable countries to rebuild democratic societies and resist communism after WWII.

60 years ago: on 27th June 1957 that Britain's Medical Research Council reported that there was a cause-and-effect relationship between smoking and lung cancer. As a result, the Minister of Health said he had a duty to warn the public of the risks smokers faced.

50 years ago: on 1st June 1967 the album Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band was released by the Beatles.

Also 50 years ago: on 5th to 10th June 1967 that the Six-Day War began. Israel launched pre-emptive air strikes against Egypt and then pushed into Jordan and Syria. Israel captured the Gaza Strip and Sinai Peninsula from Egypt, the West Bank from Jordan, and the Golan Heights from Syria.

Also 50 years ago: on 17th June 1967 that China successfully tested its first hydrogen bomb, becoming the fourth country to develop a thermonuclear weapon.

30 years ago: on 11th June 1987 that Margaret Thatcher became the only British Prime Minister of the 20th century to win three consecutive terms in office.

25 years ago: on 1st June and 16th June respectively, that Russia became a member of the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank.

Also 25 years ago: on 22nd June 1992 that Andrew Morton's controversial book 'Diana – Her True Story' was published. It claimed she was deeply depressed and unstable, and had made several suicide attempts.

20 years ago: on 3rd June 1997 that Lionel Jospin became Prime Minister of France.

Also 20 years ago: on 12th June 1997 that Shakespeare's Globe Theatre opened in London. It is a reconstruction of the original theatre of 1599, located about 230 metres from the original site. (Editor: are there any English Lit. students in your church who would like to write about their visit to the Globe?)

15 years ago: on 3rd & 4th June 2002 that Queen Elizabeth II celebrated her Golden Jubilee.

Also 15 years ago: on 21st June 2002 that the World Health Organisation declared Europe polio-free.

10 years ago: on 29th June 2007 that Apple released the first iPhone.

Events In Askwith, Weston And Denton

The Easter Monday Walk and East Egg Hunt was well attended.
We think that there must have been almost 50 children and adults taking part. We were blessed with good weather which helped make it a happy occasion.

Grateful thanks to the staff at the Askwith Arms for putting on hot cross buns and a cup of tea for us for no charge. A good community event so thanks to all who participated.

Our new theme “The Ever-changing Valley” stretching from May to August 2017 is here! This theme will show the different ways that people, both locals and visitors, can see and experience the valley, be it through feats of engineering such as the reservoirs, through the written word, through leisure activities, or through local eyes. It’s a packed programme of events and here is a taster of what is happening throughout June. We have four events planned for June but due to the popularity of two of them, which are both sold out, the remaining two events are detailed below along with a hint of what is happening in July.

We do hope you’ll enjoy these events and drop in to see the new exhibition. Why not join as a member for only £10 per year – the fantastic 20% discount on events means that you could save the membership fee on just one event!

The June events start on Tuesday 6th June from 7.30pm to 9.00pm. “A Writer in the Valley” is an interactive evening with local author and farmer Steph Shields who uses the Valley as inspiration and often location for some of her stories. She will discuss her recent publication “At the Country Fair” and it’s not to be missed for fans of literature. Light refreshments and a cash bar will be provided and the cost is £7.50 (members £6.00)

Friday 23rd June is the first of our ever popular suppers “Summer Selection”. Starting at 7.00pm until 10.00pm, a delicious selection of summer dishes accompanied by some delightful summer readings are on offer. Come and enjoy a lovely mid-summer evening with your friends. Cost is £24.00 (members £19.50)

And as promised and just popping in to July, we present a talk “The Washburn Valley Woodlands” on Tuesday 4th July from 7.30pm until 9.00pm. An illustrated talk by Geoff Lomas, Catchment and Recreation Manager, Yorkshire Water on the YW woodlands of the Washburn Valley.

Email: washburnwharfe@btinternet.com

The talk will cover the many activities that go into managing the woodlands, the collection of water, habitats, recreation and aspects you may never have thought of. With delicious home-made refreshments, the cost is £7.50 (members £6.00)

On Friday 14th July from 4.00pm to 7.00pm is an “Open Garden Visit “ where you can visit and explore members David and Pat Anderson's garden which was created in 2002 from a high walled garth on their 40 acre hill farm. Wander through the plantation, see traditional sheep dips and admire the views of the Upper Valley. Light refreshments will be served. Cost is £7.50 (members £6.00)

All our events are very popular and booking is essential for all.

N.B. From April until the end of October we are open Saturday and Sunday each weekend between 11am and 4.30pm. As usual the last weekend in the month will just be tea and biscuits as a full menu is served up the road in the Parochial Hall at this time.

Advance booking and payment are required to secure a place for all events. For details of these and other interesting and ‘tasty’ events coming up over the next few months please either contact Michelle Metcalfe on 01943 880794 or email centre@washburnvalley.org. All events can also be viewed on our website www.washburnvalley.org.

Saturday, 17 June

In honour of Jo Cox, The Great Get Together has been planned for the weekend of 16-18 June across the country, and the Robinson Library members decided to move the Summer BBQ to Saturday the 17th in order to join in. For more information contact Colette on luscombc@yahoo.com, or 880 559.

Explore with us Life's BIG Questions.

We are starting a 10 week Alpha Course beginning in September.

Together we will explore how the Christian faith can make sense of our world and our lives. In the midst of the chaos there are answers. Life can have meaning and purpose. Each evening session will have a short talk and then time for discussion. All are welcome. More details about dates and venue coming soon.

Hiding in one of the puzzles is the word 'TRINITY', can you find it?

St RICHARD of CHICHESTER

St Richard of Chichester, who lived from 1197 to 1253, is patron saint of the English county of Sussex.

In 1244 Richard was elected Bishop of Chichester but King Henry III wanted someone else as bishop and he ordered that no one should feed or house Richard. So Richard lived with a friend who was a parish priest and visited his entire diocese on foot for two years until the king relented.

Richard is widely remembered today for the prayer he is supposed to have said as he was dying. The prayer was adapted for the song 'Day by Day' in the musical Godspell and it is in this form that most people know it today:

Day by day,
Dear Lord, of thee
three things I pray:
To see thee more clearly,
Love thee more dearly,
Follow thee more nearly,
Day by Day.

SOUNDS STRANGE

There are still quite a few people called Richard today but some saints' names sound very strange to our modern ears - how many of these names are saint's names and how many of them are something else all together? Answers at the bottom of the page.

1. Wenceslas
2. Mesrop
3. Blaise
4. Porphyry
5. Waudru
6. Methodius
7. Attracta
8. Sebbi
9. Fiacre
10. Budoc

Answer: all of them are saints listed in the Penguin Dictionary of Saints - honestly.

Well we had another super speaker at this month's meeting. Charlotte Leeming, long-time presenter of BBC Look North, came along and gave us a wonderful talk about her career in broadcasting with lots of funny stories along the way. She'd originally intended to go into journalism but whilst she was at University got a chance to do some work experience at a local radio station, which she loved, and from that, via numerous other radio stations, she heard about an opportunity to work in regional television at the BBC in Leeds and jumped at the chance.

She told us lots of stories about the mishaps and nail-biting moments she's experienced whilst working on live TV and what for her were the most poignant moments too. Most notably covering the tragic death of Jo Cox, the labour MP for Batley and Spen, and the recent child abuse trials in Yorkshire, which were extremely harrowing. But she had lots of funny anecdotes too and of course she's interviewed many famous people, perhaps most notably for her, Gary Barlow when he came to Leeds to promote the 'Calendar Girls' musical. Apparently he was a dream to interview !

Charlotte loves the WI and all it stands for and was thrilled to come along and talk to us. She's utterly charming and down to earth and questions continued virtually until the end of the meeting. We all left with smiles on our faces.

Our visit to Harewood House in April was very enjoyable. We had a guided tour of the Victoria exhibition, which is based on the ITV series 'Victoria', some of which was filmed at the house, and, apart from displaying costumes from the series, the curators of the exhibition have delved into the Harewood archives and found many artefacts relating to the house and family in Victorian times. The exhibition runs throughout the summer and it's well worth a visit. We've got other trips arranged during the next few months, also we'll be serving tea and cakes at Askwith, Weston and Denton Open Gardens in June. Plus there's our usual volunteering in the WI Pavilion at the Great Yorkshire Show in July, and our Craft Club, Walking Group, and monthly Lunch Club.

Next month our meeting will be a week later than usual as Askwith Village Hall will be in use on the 2nd Thursday as there's a General Election apparently ! So, we're meeting on Thursday 15th June at 7.30pm and we're welcoming Jo Banks from Harrogate Garden and Flower School which should be another entertaining evening.

We're a very friendly WI and welcome visitors and members from all around the area. For further information call Margaret Creek on (01943) 467865 or Sue Appleyard on (01943) 839292.

14 June 2017 – A Stroll at Rose Tree Farm; In June we'll be going on an outing to the farm of Peter and Sarah Ashby which is situated in the beautiful Washburn Valley, above Lindley Wood Reservoir. The Ashby's are organic farmers, who are committed to sympathetic environmental management and sustainable farming, and we will enjoy an evening exploring their farm and learning more about the work that they do.

12 July 2017 – 80th Birthday Celebrations of Farnley Estate WI; Our WI was founded in 1937 so this is a year of celebrations. We're holding our 'official' Birthday Party at our July meeting with a splendid tea provided by Pinnies and Pearls.

Meeting Reports

12 April 2017

Entertaining Made Easy: Julie Clarke, very ably assisted by her helper Sandra, demonstrated three courses and an additional dessert with the theme Entertaining made easy. Recipe sheets were distributed for a savoury spinach roulade, orange-glazed chicken, Black Forest roulade and mango, raspberry and white chocolate heaven. Throughout the preparation and cooking she regaled her audience with amusing and interesting tales including how she met the Queen at the Royal Albert Hall having won the recipe competition for the WI centenary fruit cake. This was the occasion on which she instructed Princess Anne to help 'her mother' cut Julie's cake at the NFWI Centenary Annual Meeting in 2015. The resulting picture of the royal party and WI officers laughing was in the national press!

Portions of Julie's dishes were included as part of the raffle that Daphne Baxter organised for the end of the meeting. The raffle raised £100 for Denman which is the WI's inspiring residential and day college which offers courses in the fields of cookery, craft and lifestyle.

Farnley Estate WI is group of friendly women. Anyone interested in joining is always welcome to come along and try out one of our meetings. We meet on the second Wednesday of the month at Leathley Village Hall at 7.30pm and have a varied programme of educational, practical and inspiring talks and demonstrations. We also have a Walking Club and Book Club, which both meet each month.

The Path of Right

My walk this day with God,
My walk this day with Christ,
My walk this day with Spirit,
The Threefold all-kindly:
Ho! ho! ho! The Threefold all-kindly.

My shielding this day from ill,
My shielding this night from harm,
Ho! ho! Both my soul and my body,
Be by Father, by Son, by Holy Spirit:
By Father, by Son, by Holy Spirit.

Be the Father shielding me,
Be the Son shielding me,
Be the Spirit shielding me,
As Three and as One:
Ho! ho! ho! As Three and as One.

From Carmina Gadelica

Christ Yesterday, Today, and Forever

Christ yesterday, today, forever;
King of Kings and Lord of Lords.
He the Alpha and Omega;
Source of life and life's reward.

Life He heals and life sustaining
He embraces all in love:
Lifts the world to highest heaven,
Works in death His love to prove.

Christ has Risen, Christ is with us,
With us now in time and place:
Blessing each and every moment
With His peace and plenteous grace

Come, Holy Spirit of Jesus

(Rev 3:20 Acts 2:4)

At my invitation,
at the opening of my heart,
just as you promised, Lord, you come,
to ignite your flame of love and presence,
to leap through words of scripture
and prayers and songs.

Into my life, Lord, you come,
bringing purpose, joy, peace and the assurance that this is just the beginning of forever and ever.

Holy Spirit of Jesus
come, fill me, comfort me, equip me, inspire me
today.

Church bells on the Wind

It matters not how sad you feel
If eyes, with tears, are dimmed;
Your heart will lift to hear the peal
Of church bells on the wind.

Was e'er a sound that had the pow'r
To touch one feeling grim –
To bring relief in gloomy hour
Like church bells on the wind?

I love that sound upon the breeze
With joy my soul is twinned!
And I give thanks upon my knees
For church bells on the wind.

Life, Death, the Universe and Everything

It was in the garden when man first met
His Creator God and walked with Him.
The pleasures of Eden were his to enjoy
The genesis of man who was then without sin.

To make him complete God took Adam's rib

Forming Eve to be by his side,
But the devil appeared in the form of a snake

Offering fruit that they should have declined.

Paradise lost, they were sent from that place,

They had disobeyed God and death entered in,

No longer to walk in the cool of the day
And enjoy all the pleasures that God could bring.

But God's in control of all He has made,
Our world and beyond and mysteries untold,

There are more things in heaven and earth than we know

To be revealed as time ends and eternity unfolds.
