Support The Washburn Benefice

We are pleased to announce that the Rt Revd Nicholas Baines, Bishop of Leeds, has invited the Revd Tony Collins to support the Washburn Benefice during the interregnum.

Tony has sent this message to us all:

I am very excited and grateful to be able to offer some support to your Benefice during the vacancy. I have already met with many of the Churchwardens and we have started exploring how we might develop governance, patterns of worship and bringing the parishes of the Benefice closer together in a way that will provide a really attractive and positive opportunity for an enthusiastic and mission focussed priest to take up the incumbency.

I am currently serving in the neighbouring Benefice of Dacre, Darley, Hartwith and Thornthwaite and had the great privilege of leading Benefice through a long vacancy, before our current incumbent was appointed. In the past I was also able to support the United Benefice of Ripley, Markington, Burnt Yates, Bishop Thornton and South Stainley during a vacancy. I have some understanding of the opportunities and challenges (perhaps they are the same thing) that rural multi-church benefices bring.

I live in Sawley with Julia, my wife. I have four beautiful daughters all left home and in the last eighteen months I have collected two grandsons and one granddaughter with one more on the way. I am a self-supporting minister and am also employed full-time working for Saint Michael's Hospice.

I am really looking forward to meeting you all and sharing in God's mission in this wonderful area.

Tony Collins

Chamber Music In Ripon Cathedral 2017/18

These concerts, which feature both established and rising national and international artists, complement the short Thursday lunch time concerts arranged by the Music Department of the Cathedral. Below is a summary of the concerts - I have attached a brochure with more details.

The season opens on October 9th with UK's leading cello and piano duo, Raphael Wallfisch and John York.

The Pelleas Ensemble - flute, viola and harp will include popular requests and some old favourites. which will take place the more intimate surroundings of St Johns, Sharow on Nov 13

The pianist Ivana Gavric returns to a balanced programme of music by Haydn, Grieg, Chopin and Schumann on 4 Dec.

Anna Tilbrook, a regular to Ripon will be in action with the Marlborough Quartet in Schubert's Trout Quintet on 8 Jan

The baritone Roderick Williams, a leading interpreter of Schubert and Iain Burnside will be giving a very special performance of Schubert's Winterreise on 12 Feb

Herschel Trio of harpsichord, viola da gamba and baroque flute/recorder will close the season with a concert of baroque music on 12 March

The concert offer the opportunity to enjoy familiar and less familiar chamber works in the magical and spiritual setting of the Quire of the Cathedral. We are always amazed by the distance that people will travel on a regular basis to hear excellent performances. We have arranged for the Old Deanery Hotel, opposite the Cathedral to provide a special pre-concert diner (two courses and coffee/tea for £15).

Individual tickets, which cost £17 to £20 depending on the concert (£5 for students and free if under 18) can be purchased on line at our web site www.riponconcerts.co.uk, from the Cathedral's Gift shop and the Little Ripon Bookshop or via the Harrogate Theatre's Box office (www.harrogatetheatre.co.uk) or from the Music House in Harrogate or at the door. Regular attendees of our concerts can opt to become members by paying an annual subscription of £70-£80 for the whole season.

Best wishes

Advent Study Group

“The Kingdom has come”

The Christian season of Advent celebrates the coming of Jesus Christ. In the Lord's Prayer, we say the words' "Your Kingdom Come". So what is God's Kingdom and in what sense has it already come?

We'll be exploring the answers to these questions as we look together at the first four chapters of Matthew's Gospel, over three Wednesday mornings, on 6th 13th and 20th December.

We'll be meeting at Fewston Parochial Hall. Refreshments are at 10.30am and finishing before noon. Everyone is welcome whether Christian, sceptic or somewhere in between!

Please note that on 13th December, there will be no separate Timble Prayer. This will be subsumed within the Advent group at 10.30am. This arrangement applies to the December Timble Prayer only.

Free Daffodil Bulbs

Mid Wharfedale Parish Council have successfully applied for 300 free daffodil bulbs from Harrogate Borough Council.

They are to be planted in the parish where they will benefit the community (road side verges, village greens, hedge bottoms etc.)

All are bagged in lots of 25 and can be collected from the clerk by prior appointment Nick Pullan Clerk to MWPC 07720260401. Or email npullanmwpc@gmail.com

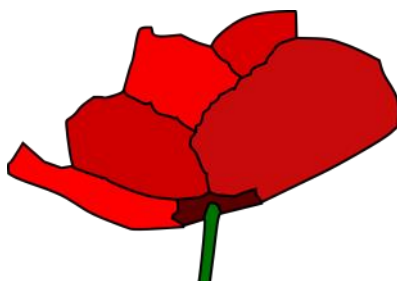

The Fewston Band

I run The Fewston Musick group at the Washburn Heritage Centre, and I am interested in The Fewston Band which existed in the 18th and 19th centuries. The Band probably provided the music in Fewston Church before the installation of the organ, and it would also have played on high days and holidays. A book from the 1930s refers to some of their instruments being in the possession of Mr Ernest Abbott of Dacre, and there may still be some of these in existence. If you know of anything that might related to the Fewston Band, or of anything about the music, singers and folk history in this area, I would be very interested to hear from you. Harvest at Timble

Timble Chapel was full for the Harvest Festival at the beginning of October. Elaine Stead welcomed Rev Leonora Wassell to her first service at Timble since taking up her new role in the Circuit working with the smaller churches of Timble, Norwood, Pool and Hawkesworth.

Chapel was beautifully decorated with flowers and produce and thanks are due to Jackie Davison, Sue Dalton, Jane Austick and Gwyn Pettit for their stunning efforts.

In her address Leonora explained that when working with a church for the first time she is often told that they are hoping that she will help them to fill the church. In that respect she said, smiling, that she had already achieved folks' expectations. This though is not what she sees to be the goal, rather she believes that her work is to get to know and work with people in the community.

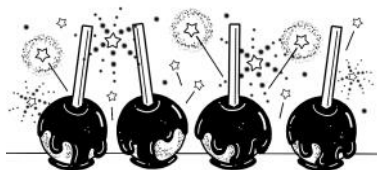

The collection was for All We Can, the Methodist charity which supports those in need abroad including the victims of the recent hurricanes on the Caribbean.

Refreshments were served afterwards and as they left, people were encouraged to take some flowers or produce with them in exchange for a donation to church funds.

It was very good to welcome so many people to our Harvest Celebrations and we thank them for their support and fellowship.

Training for Reader Ministry

We are delighted that John Bowers has been accepted to begin Reader training in the diocese. He began this in September by studying a module on the Old Testament. John and Allison are regular members of the Fewston congregation and both are members of the PCC. John is Head of Idle Church of England Primary School in Bradford and he'll no doubt use his skills and experience gained there to inform his ministry among us.

Enigma

‘S eventy-five years ago, on 30th October 1942, U Boat U559 was spotted in the Eastern Mediterranean, and was badly damaged by depth charges and ‘pom-poms’ from various ships, including a P-class destroyer, HMS Petard.

‘Three members of Petard’s crew, Lt Tony Fasson, Able Seaman Colin Crazier, and Canteen Assistant Tommy Brown managed to board U559 in the dark, and were able to get hold of the Enigma code books, although the Enigma machine itself went down with the submarine. Tragically, so too did Fasson and Crazier. Only Brown was able to escape, only to die in 1945 attempting to rescue his infant sister from a house fire.

‘So this poem remembers the enormous number of sailors from the merchant marine and the Royal Navy lost during the war, and also marks the brilliance and dogged persistence of those like Alan Turing who worked tirelessly to discover the secrets of the German code machines.’

Our green and sceptered Isle
Was sore afflicted
Grave losses for a while
On ships inflicted.
Our seamen, young and brave
Claimed by an ocean grave
Who would our nation save?
Oh, cruel enigma!

The U-boats used a code
None could discover
Dread harm by them bestowed
Beneath its cover.
A U-boat, foundering
The waves were thundering

Three seamen, plundering
The code ‘Enigma’!

So came to Bletchley Park
The secret packet
They worked through light and dark
To try to crack it.
These people, smart and wise
Through dogged enterprise
They won the golden prize
They solved Enigma!

Prayer to remind us to remember

Lord, At this remembrance time, we remember those who gave their lives in the service and protection of their country, whether many years ago, or in more recent conflicts. We thank you for them and pray for those who loved them.

The death of a loved one, whatever the cause, changes our lives forever and we walk an unchosen path. There are wonderful memories, times to be thankful, but nothing takes away the pain and empty space every day. Thank you, Lord, for understanding our loss. Thank you that when we cry, we know that you cried first, when your friend died. It's all right to cry. It's all right to pour out our pain to you, as we remember...

And Lord, we remember most of all your death on the cross. We thank you that in this remembering we have hope and meaning and confidence because you rose again; you overcame death. If we put our trust in you we shall live with you forever. Lord at our saddest times, help us to remember your victory and the bigger picture! In Jesus name, Amen.

By Daphne Kitching

Some thoughts on remembering

Remember me as the poppies fall
On the shoulders, heads, and at the feet
Of young and old,
All gathered for the Festival.

Remember me in the music played,
In the clapping of the audience,
Keeping time
And uniforms so proudly worn.

Remember me in the stories told,
Most from the distant past, but others new,
Each one rehearsing memories stored or
In the making.

Remember me -
And if a tear should chance to flow
Then let it flow for the world in pain,
And dedicate yourself to peace.

For you are my memorial.
And your life, if lived for others,
Is my legacy.

"To those who are made holy in Christ Jesus, and called to be saints, with all those in every place who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours".

St HUGH of LINCOLN 17th November

In the Middle Ages, bishops were very important people. They were not only men of the church but also involved in running the country. They lived in great palaces and did not have much to do with ordinary people.

Bishop Hugh of Lincoln was different. He became known and loved for his charity to the poor; he cared for lepers and even risked his own life to prevent the killing of Jewish people during riots.

The Bishop rebuilt Lincoln Cathedral after it was destroyed by a great earthquake in 1185, but to him people were always more important than all the carved stones.

If you go to Lincoln, look out for the pictures of swans because

St. Hugh is usually shown with a swan. He had a pet swan which guarded him while he was asleep.

Askwith With Weston WI Report

Jill Turton and Amanda Wragg were our October speakers and for those who don't know them they're professional restaurant critics who regularly contribute to the Yorkshire Post's Saturday morning restaurant reviews as well as reviewing and inspecting pubs, restaurants, and places to stay for the AA and Sawday guides, amongst many others.

They gave an entertaining and illuminating insight into the secret life of restaurant inspectors and the various wheezes they employ to avoid being spotted.

Over a number of years they've developed their website 'Squidbeak' which is a totally independent guide to the best restaurants, pubs, cafes, shops, and places to stay in Yorkshire and they say they've eaten at every half decent place in the county over the years. If you're out and about in Yorkshire it's certainly worth taking a look at.

Afterwards there were lots of questions about their favourite places to eat and stay, and those they don't rate, and it made for an interesting and different evening.

As reported last month our quiz team won our heat in the North Yorkshire West WI annual quiz and we now know we're through to the final which is coming soon, so watch this space !

Next month it's our AGM and then our visit to Tatton Park which will be decked out for Christmas, and in December our Christmas lunch and the WI Carol Service at Ripon Cathedral, plus once again we're decorating a tree at Otley Parish Church's Christmas Tree Festival, so lots to look forward to.

We meet on the 2nd Thursday of the month, 7.30pm, at Askwith Village Hall and we always welcome visitors and new members from around the area. In December our Christmas lunch takes the place of our usual meeting but we'll be getting together again in January when our speakers will be John and Iris Riley from the charity Mercy Ships which is almost entirely run by volunteers and gives free medical care to some of the world's poorest people. So why not come along ?

If you'd like more information ring Margaret Creek on 01943 467865 or Sue Appleyard on 01943 839292.

11 October 2017 – Annual Meeting and Faith Supper; Our annual meeting was duly held and the committee appointed for a further year. Carline Barker remains as our President. As part of our 80th Anniversary celebrations we had a fascinating display of materials from the institute's and members' archives (including a card signed by Mary Berry!) and all members were given a small booklet which summarised the research of our hardworking Archive Group. A delicious supper concluded the evening.

Getting the builders in

‘S uppose one of you wants to build a tower. Won’t you first sit down and estimate the cost to see if you have enough money to complete it? For if you lay the foundation and are not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule you, 30 saying, “This person began to build and wasn’t able to finish.” (Luke 14:28-30)

This is a great verse for lawyers, as are many others in the Bible. I like the way the advice to ‘sit down’ comes first - that makes sense. If you are having some work done on your house, have a good think first.

What other advice would you need? The first thing is talk to people. Perhaps your neighbours or people in church have had work done. Can they recommend someone?

Get several estimates and take time and research to choose the right person. Often a local builder or tradesperson is best. A firm that advertises locally – perhaps in the parish magazine, might be the right one.

Ask for a reference. If you want double glazing or whatever, ask for details of somewhere they have worked. Always choose the contractor, don’t let them choose you. There is nothing wrong in answering an advertisement in a leaflet but do not get talked or pressured into agreeing something.

Get a proper quotation for the work. Not only cost, but how long the work will take. How much mess will they cause, and when can they start?

Do you need advice, plans building regs, corgi, and planning permission? Get it in writing. In these days of email, it should be easy to get the contractor to confirm it.

Even if the builder says, “I should be able to start next week,” it is an indication only and not what we solicitors call a fundamental condition of the contract. You could change, by insisting on an agreement at the start that the work must be done by a date.

Be reasonable. Sometimes work really does take longer than anticipated; jobs get held up, and things change which are of everyone’s control. As always, this is a light-hearted guide and always get proper advice.

Lastly, do you really need a tower (extension) anyway?

Women and the priesthood – 25 years on

On 11th November 1992, millions of people were watching the unfolding events at Church House, Westminster. The General Synod of the Church of England was in session, and, after 20 years of debate, here was another chance for the Synod to allow women in the priesthood. The BBC were there to broadcast the debate to the nation.

There were crowds outside: plenty supporting the legislation, plenty opposing. During one debate, a small procession had borne a black coffin into Dean's Yard proclaiming the death of the Church of England, should it ordain women as priests.

Chairing the Synod, the Archbishop of York, Dr John Habgood, invited the Bishop of Guildford, the Rt Revd Michael Adie, to propose the motion. The Ven David Silk, Archdeacon of Leicester, stood to oppose the motion, only to be interrupted by a fire alarm.

The Archdeacon started again and the debate continued, one speech for, one against, for five hours. Synod sat in silent prayer before casting their votes: House of Bishops 39 'for' and 13 'against', House of Clergy 176 'for' and 74 'against', and House of Laity 169 'for' and 82 'against'. That was two-third majorities in each House, as required: just two Laity votes the other way would have halted the legislation.

On 12th March, 1994, at Bristol Cathedral, the first women were ordained into the Church of England's priesthood. Many reports sought to name the 'first woman priest' but none were accurate. Most chose the first name alphabetically but actually all the candidates are ordained simultaneously, so there were, in fact, 32 'first women priests'.

But it wasn't that simple. Parliament had insisted the Church of England make provision for those opposed: 1000 clergy had threatened to leave. The Act of Synod, passed in 1993, allowed parishes not to accept ordained women and to seek oversight from a Provincial Episcopal Visitor (flying bishop) if their own bishop ordained women. The legality of ordaining women was even challenged in civil courts.

Today, of 19,550 clergy in the Church of England, more than a quarter, 5,690, are women. Of 7,790 stipendiary (paid) clergy, 2,160 are women. Of 544 future clergy beginning training this autumn, 274 are women. And, in November 2014, 22 years after that historic vote, the Synod voted for women as bishops. The Rt Revd Libby Lane, Bishop of Stockport, was the first to be consecrated. Canon Dr Guli Francis-Dehqani, as the first Bishop of Loughborough, will be the eleventh.

An Ordinary meeting of MWPC was held at Askwith Village Hall on 24th August 2017. All parishes were represented, along with NYCC Cllr Lumley, the Clerk and 13 members of the public.

New councillor David Powell was welcomed for the Middleton parish.

Members of the Burley Bridge Association attended the meeting and during the Public Session they informed the council and members of the public of what action has been occurring since planning permission was granted and also included what they hoped for in the future. They then answered questions from council members and members of the public and it was quite clear that Askwith, Weston and the surrounding area have totally different views than BBA

The minutes from the Annual and Ordinary meeting on 24th May 2017 were adopted.

Under matters from the previous meeting the Clerk confirmed that efforts are still being made to get a replacement councillor for Langbar. The Clerk confirmed that every household in Langbar had been sent a letter asking for volunteer councillor with no response.

The Welcome to Askwith sign that had been knocked down was discussed, with the Clerk informing the meeting that NYCC had confirmed that if the post is reinstated to a vertical position they would then fix the sign back to the post with the correct brackets. Cllr Shepherd to pursue erecting the sign post.

Nesfield Village Fund had written to MWPC asking for a contribution of £180 towards to repair of the Postman's Shelter. As the council have funds in hand, it was proposed by Cllr Whitley seconded Cllr Caton and carried that the contribution should be made.

The annual insurance is due for renewal on 1st October and it was proposed Cllr Stewart, seconded Cllr Marston and agreed to continue with Zurich Municipal at a rate of £293.15 this is an increase of £9.38 due to an increase of tax implemented by the government.

Under Highway matters items discussed were Japanese Knotweed growing in Denton. Denton triangle and hay Lorries that are causing the road to collapse and these Lorries mounting the green to get around the corner. Over grown hedges on the Nesfield to Beamsley road, and site lines due to vegetation when coming off Denton suspension Bridge. Clerk to write to Highways about all the above.

Email: washburnwharfe@btinternet.com

Cllr Shepherd asked about MWPC role in the Harrogate District Local Plan. Only Askwith could be included in this as it is the only village large enough to be listed under Category C. As no land had previously been available then Askwith were not included in the HDLP. Further investigation is to be made in the village to see if any land was now available.

Accounts were presented and adopted and planning matters were discussed with all planning matters and decisions available on the MWPC web site.

Should any members of the public wish to contact their local councillor then this can be done with the information provided on their local parish notice board, via the MWPC web site at the above address or through the HBC web site at www.harrogate.gov.uk/contactus

The next meeting is 16th November 2017 at Askwith Village Hall starting at 7.45pm.
