

WASHBURN VALLEY & MID-WHARFE CHURCHES

JANUARY 2019 ~ ISSUE 412

Happy New Year!

The New Year – a time for making a fresh start – a time for doing something different. A time for making New Year resolutions. Through the introduction of the Gregorian calendar in 1582 and the acknowledgement by Pope Gregory XIII that January 1st was the start of the New Year people started, from that time, to exchange gifts and make plans for the year to come. By the time the Victorian era was ushered in making New Year resolutions was a well-developed practice. Putting aside the knowledge that many such resolutions are rarely kept beyond the end of January now is he time to make your good intentions known. You could do your bit for global warming and walk to work or leave the car parked up for at least one day every week, or eat fewer calories and shed some weight with extra exercise thrown in for good measure.

On January 1st 1887 Rudyard Kipling also joined the Victorian desire to make New Year resolutions but his medium was poetry. In each stanza of a short poem he captured the seriousness of a resolution but added a humorous undertone. I quote his first stanza-

> I am resolved throughout the year To lay my vices on the shelf, A godly, sober course to steer And love my neighbours as myself-Excepting always two or three Whom I detest as they hate me.

Of course, Kipling was as aware as we are of the Christian origin of his fourth line, a line which to me in the world of today has particular resonance. In Britain, in some of our cities, we seem to be creating records, record number of stabbings and death from violence where loving one's neighbour seems to be so remote as to be almost laughable. Prejudice and intolerance seem to hold sway rather than any thought of love.

Across large swathes of our world, the absence of love and the dominance of prejudice and intolerance has allowed the persecution of religious minorities including Christians to become almost endemic. In Pakistan the horrific persecution of the Bibi family is particularly distressing but then also is the lack of response by the Christian nations of the West. Christ was quite clear as to who is my neighbour.

So how about making a new year's resolution to love one's neighbour as oneself, just as Kipling did over a century ago but leaving out the bit about excepting the two or three.

All In The Month Of January

100 years ago, on 5th Jan 1919, that the German Workers' Party was founded by Anton Drexler. In February 1920 it was renamed the National Socialist German Workers' party – better known as the Nazi Party.

90 years ago, on 6th Jan 1929 that Mother Teresa arrived in Calcutta, India to begin working with the poor and sick.

80 years ago, on 26th Jan1939 that General Franco's forces captured Barcelona as part of the Spanish Civil War.

70 years ago, on 1st Jan 1949 that the British Nationality Act came into effect. It established the status of 'Citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies' and granted those citizens the right to enter and live in the United Kingdom.

60 years ago, on 8^{th} Jan 1959 that Charles De Gaulle was inaugurated as President of France.

50 years ago, on 30^{th} Jan 1969 that the Beatles gave their last public performance, on the roof of Apple Studios in London.

40 years ago, on 7th Jan 1979 that Vietnamese troops captured the Cambodian capital Phnom Phenh and overthrew Pol Pot and the Khmer Rouge government.

30 years ago, on 8th Jan 1989 that the Kegworth air disaster took place. A British Midland Boeing 737 crashed onto the M1 motorway in Leicestershire while attempting an emergency landing at East Midlands Airport. 47 people were killed and 74 injured.

20 years ago, on 1st Jan 1999 that the Euro officially became the new currency in 11 European countries. (Coins and banknotes entered circulation in Jan 2002.)

10 years ago, on 20^{th} Jan 2009 that Barack Obama was inaugurated as the 44th President of the USA.

Father of all,

You gave Jesus to be the light of the whole world. Help us to receive His light and to reflect it. Help us not to limit the extent of your love by the restrictions of our own understanding. Give us wisdom to look upwards and outwards and to allow your Holy Spirit to transform us day by day as we serve you. Thank you for the gift of wisdom and for those who respond to your prompting to find Jesus.

In His name,

Amen.

During the coming New Year,

let these words from Psalm 33:12 form the basis for your daily personal prayers for your country... and indeed for the political leadership in the wake of all that has been taking place in the closing weeks of the past year. Let the prayers expand further still – to take in the conflicts, dilemmas and disasters that at times seem to engulf the world.

For – as the French philosopher Jaques Ellul once observed – "It is prayer, and prayer alone that can make history."

Try to take in the stupendous influence stemming from a Christian's prayer! It lies out of all proportion to that residing in any other belief-system. It is the supremely God-given appointed way by which we cooperate with heaven's will. A single family of believers can touch an entire street. One praying church can ignite the surrounding township.

In his book on 'England covering the years 1870-1914,' the radical historian RCK Ensor commented that no one will understand 19th century England who ignores the influence exerted by a small group of lay business people from the Anglican church of Holy Trinity Clapham. The 'Clapham Sect' (as they were dubbed) were a single group of believing men and women who reached across the continents.

From their alliance stemmed the formation of the East India Company, the Church Missionary Society, the British and Foreign Bible Society, and a score of other influential enterprises that touched the world. The statue of Eros in the very centre of London was set up to honour the memory of one of their most effective associates – Ashley Cooper, the seventh Earl of Shaftesbury.

Ensor comments, 'If one asks how 19thcentury English merchants earned the reputation of being the most honest in the world (a very real factor in the prominence of English trade), the answer is: Because hell and heaven seemed as certain to the Clapham group as tomorrow's sunrise, and the Last Judgment as real as the week's balance sheet.' Ensor continues: 'All the Clapham friends rose early to meet the Lord through Bible study and prayer. Perhaps here is the final secret of their achievement.'

Indeed, it certainly must be – if God is ever once more to occupy centre place among us all.

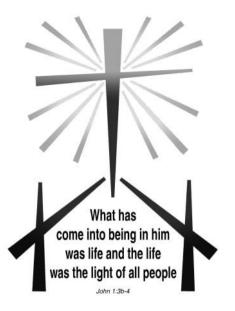

Caring for the Vicar

The Church of England is looking into ways of giving more support to vicars. You may think here's a nice life: house provided, regular salary, job security – and only one day's work a week! But from my own personal experience I can assure you it's not like that.

In my working life I've had four jobs: teacher, then journalist, then BBC producer and finally vicar. The last was by some distance the m ost sat is fying and rewarding, but also by far the most demanding. Your home is also the office seven days a week. It's true Sunday is the 'public' bit of your work, but while you may be free to pick up the kids from school forget about cosy evenings with the family. The bit of the vicar's work that is public is on Sundays, true. But the really defining part of the job is largely unseen and takes place all through the week.

It was funny coming from an ordinary job to parish ministry. Previously, I had known what I was expected to do, the hours I was required to work and to whom I was answerable. Well vicars are technically 'self -employed', though they are licenced by the bishop and paid by the Church Commissioners. In practice, their work is determined by the local church – its needs, potential, aspirations. The churchwardens and the Parochial Church Council also help to shape the work-load. If all that sounds a bit confusing, yes, it is. Possibly the Church's current research may look into that.

What won't change, I'm sure, is the priestly vocation. It is not a job, even if I've used the word, but a vocation – like nursing, teaching or care-work. It is always hopeless to treat a vocation as a job! Mind you, that is all the more reason for those who shape the work patterns of those 'called' with sensitivity and care. Clergy burn-out is not unknown, and nor is depression which stems from a feeling of failure. So, don't only just pray for the vicar. Show him or her how much you value them and, where possible, share their burden.

Were I to make a perfect prayer, designed

To rid the world of selfishness and greed,

With books of lore I would not tax my mind,

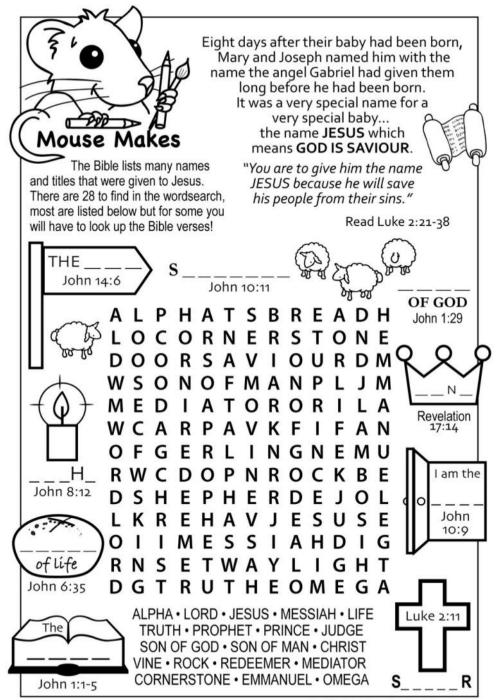

For these two simple lines would fill my need –

'Renew, O God, within the hearts of men

The Golden Rule, and give it life again.'

Word Search for January 2019

The Magi brought three gifts to Jesus: gold, frankincense and myrrh. Gold was a gift that would have been given to a king. Frankincense was brought by priests as they worshipped God in the Temple. Myrrh was a spice that the ancients used in preparing bodies for burial.

So you could say that the Wise Men, in choosing their gifts, honoured Jesus with gold because He was King of the Jews, with frankincense because He was to be worshipped as divine; and with myrrh, because He would also become a sacrifice and die for His people.

The Wise Men were the very first gentiles ever to worship Jesus. What faith they had! They never saw any evidence of Jesus' kingship, His divinity or His sacrificial death. They simply worshipped Him through faith in God's promises alone.

"This New Year, I'm going to make a resolution I can keep: no dieting all year long." – Melanie White teaches that a new start is endlessly possible. It is provided by a personal encounter with the risen and living Jesus Christ. He offers us the opportunity and the resources to make a new start, despite all our circumstances or failings.

The Bible records many encouraging examples of people who were able to start again after encountering Jesus. These include a woman caught in adultery who was facing execution by an outraged community, a hated tax collector named Zacchaeus who had been collaborating with the enemy, and Peter, the close friend of Jesus who publicly disowned him.

God's provision of a new start liberates people from the powerful hold that guilt, fear and memories of failure can have over a human. The life, death and resurrection of Jesus have made a way for humans to find God's forgiveness. A Christian is someone who has accepted God's forgiveness and now has the freedom to reject the old habits of bitterness, anger or revenge, like disposing of a 'shabby old coat'. Many Christians experience this as such a new beginning that they describe it as feeling like a different kind of life.

Forgiveness, however, is not the same as perfection. Although many Christians can look back to a specific time at which they made a decision to make a new start as a follower of the way of Jesus Christ, living up to a new way of being is an ongoing struggle. There is a frequent need to revisit and remember the new start. Church services almost always include a point at which worshippers are encouraged to think about recent failures, confess them, and ask for the mercy of God in absolute certainty that He will forgive.

The Bible describes God's promises of mercy as 'new every morning'. It is in the gradous nature of God that mistakes and failures are not a stick to be beaten with, but an opportunity to change into something better.

God won't ask

God won't ask what kind of car you drove; He'll ask how many people you drove who didn't have transportation.

God won't ask the square footage of your house,

He'll ask how many people you welcomed into your home.

God won't ask about the clothes you had in your closet,

He'll ask how many people you helped to clothe.

God won't ask which diet you were on; He'll ask how many hungry people you helped to feed.

God won't ask what your highest salary was;

He'll ask if you compromised your character to obtain it.

God won't ask what your job title was; He'll ask if you performed your job to the best of your ability.

God won't ask how many friends you had on Facebook;

He'll ask how many people to whom you were a friend.

God won't ask in what neighbourhood you lived;

He'll ask how you treated your neighbours.

God won't ask about the colour of your skin;

He'll ask about the content of your character.

God won't ask why it took you so long to seek Him;

He'll lovingly take you into His Kingdom, not leave you at the gates of Hell.

Panel Gemma Farrar, Joe	1 st Groves	James	Driffield,

10-minute speech

1st Non Owen

Well done to all of you who took part and good luck to those who go through to the county public speaking in January.

21st November was a fun night down at Jump arena in Leeds. We were really lucky and had the whole place to ourselves. Members from 10 – 26 all trampolining and jumping around like idiots. Everyone enjoyed themselves and descended on the nearest MacDonald's for a re fuel, great night!

28th November we had a beetle drive at Armscliffe village hall, fun was had by all once everyone understood the rules! There were also some puzzled looks when it came to adding up scores after each game! Daisy Roberts and Jake Liddle top scoring with Ruby Webster claiming the booby prize.

5th December we were back to the stock judging. We had pig judging at the Farrars farm, the 4 pigs were the best I've ever seen and this was complimented by our judge for the night Mr Robert Goulding. We had a fantastic turn out and once again some great results followed:

Juniors	1 st	Jacob Ryder
	2 nd	Lucy Groves
	3 rd	Daniel Fa	arrar
	4 th	Daisy Ro	berts
	5 th	Josh Gro	ves
	6 th	Sam Nix	on
Intermed	liates	1 st	Billie Towers
		2 nd	Gemma Farrar
		3 rd	James Driffield
Seniors		1 st	Emily Bradley
		2 nd	Luby Grayshon
		3 rd	Non Owen

The club would like to thank the Farrar family for hosting the night and supplying pigs to judge and also Becky Farrar for the refreshments. Also, a big thank you to Robert for judging the pigs and giving us some excellent feedback afterwards.

As always anyone wanting to join the club contact James Driffield on 07752779350, we meet weekly on Wednesdays at 7.30 pm.
